

2 The Wallpaper Collective www.wallpapercollective.com

Designer Andrew Hardiman's Kuboaa collection, named for the word coined in Norwegian novelist Knut Hamsun's "Hunger," uses bold graphics and colors. Shown is Ginko in black and gray.

3 Style Eccentric
www.style-eccentric.com

The wing-like back of the Aria lounge chair is upholstered in acid-washed and colored cowhide. The chair, whose sculptural shape is formed by eco-friendly masonite boards, has a black lacquered hardwood seat with black leather upholstery.

4 Skyline Design
www.skydesign.com

Custom photography may be etched on one or two sides of FOTOGlas, or combined with Vitracolor paint coatings to enhance opacity. The decorative glass (shown) is installed at the University of Texas Harry Ransom Center.

5 Tivoli Audio
www.tivoliaudio.com

The Model 10 AM/FM clock radio comes in various colors and wood finishes. Features two alarms and input for iPod.

6 Séura
www.seura.com

The Hydra waterproof TV system includes low-voltage electronics that are safe for installations adjacent to bathtubs or in showers. The television's frame can be customized to match virtually any color.

7 Studio Pepe Heykoop
www.pepeheykoop.nl

Made in collaboration with the Tiny Miracles Foundation in Mumbai, India, the Lambskin Leather Lampshades are lightweight and foldable. Available in vertical and horizontal shapes that reference industrial lamps.

8 HStudio
www.hstudio.com

Moon Chair is handmade to order with acrylic (shown), wood or steel legs. Optional button tufting (shown), decorative brass studs or Swarovski crystal accents may be included. Available in a range of upholstery fabrics.